

Dharma Moon

Nathaniel Needle

F B \flat 7 C7 C dim

Shi-nin' in the eve - nin', shin-in' in the morn - in', There you are my pre - cious Dhar - ma

4 C7 $\text{\textcircled{F}}$ B \flat 7

moon! Dhar - ma moon, you il - lu - mine ev - 'ry - one in sight, when my con - cen - tra - tion's not so good,

8 G7 $\overset{1}{C7}$ F C dim

Plants and an - i - mals re - flect your light, e - ven at night, that's right, You're
You keep shin - ing like you un - der - stood

12 C7 $\overset{2}{C7}$ F7

ne - ver far my pre - cious Dhar - ma that if I could, I would. (Let's for - get the should.)

16 B \flat F dim F A7 Dm G7

It's so plain that I can't gain or lose. Ev - en my de - file - ments I can

21 C C dim C7 F

use. Thy're just my kar - ma, pre - cious Dhar - ma moon, Sing a med - i - ta - tion

25 B \flat G7 C7 To Coda $\text{\textcircled{F}}$ F C7 D.S. al Coda

song, It's a song with - out a tune, Dhar - ma moon Dhar - ma

Dharma Moon

Coda

31

ev - 'ry lit - tle star knows I love my pre - cious Dhar - ma moon! _____

DHARMA MOON

Shining in the evening, shining in the morning,
There you are, my precious Dharma moon!

Dharma moon, you illumine everyone in sight
Plants and animals reflect your light
Even at night, that's right
You're never far, my precious Dharma moon
When my concentration's not so good
You keep shining like you understood
That if I could, I would (Let's forget the should.)

It's so plain that I can't gain or lose
Even my defilements I can use,
They're just my karma, precious Dharma moon
Sing a meditation song,
It's a song without a tune,
Dharma moon

Dharma moon, you illumine everyone in sight
Plants and animals reflect your light
Even at night, that's right
You're never far, my precious Dharma moon
When my concentration's not so good
You keep shining like you understood
That if I could, I would (Let's forget the should.)

It's so plain that I can't gain or lose
Even my defilements I can use,
They're just my karma, precious Dharma moon
Sing a meditation song,
It's a song without a tune,
Dharma- ev'ry little star knows I love my precious Dharma moon!